My best friend

My name's Ben. My best friend is John. John and I go to the same school. John and I walk to school together, but we're not in the same class for every subject. John is very good at sports and he plays for the school football team. He likes music. He has a guitar lesson on Monday and Thursday. He's really good at it. I can't play a musical instrument.

John lives opposite my house. He lives in a semi-detached house – all the houses in the street are semi-detached. John's got a brother and a sister. He doesn't have his own room, he shares the room with his brother and sister. They've got a TV and a computer in their room. They don't play computer games very often – they use the computer for their homework.

I live in the same street as John. I haven't got any brothers or sisters. And I've got my own room, but I haven't got a TV or a computer in my room.

The Fox and the Crow

The fox is hungry. He is looking for food, but he can't find anything to eat. Then he sees something. It (1) a piece of cheese – nice, yellow cheese. The fox loves cheese.

He runs to get it, but then he sees a bird – a big black bird. It's a crow. The crow likes cheese, too. The big black crow lands next to the cheese, picks it up in her beak and flies up into a tree.

The fox isn't (2) He cannot eat that piece of cheese because the crow has got the cheese in her beak. „How can I get it? I (3) climb trees. And the crow can fly away.“ thinks the fox.

The fox is very clever and he has got (4) idea. He walks to the tree and looks up. „Good morning, Mrs Crow,“ says the fox. „(5) are you today?“ The crow doesn't say anything. She can't speak because she is holding the piece of cheese in her beak.

The fox starts asking: „Isn't it a lovely day? The sun is shining. The birds are singing. But you aren't singing. Why aren't you singing today, Mrs. Crow? Everybody says that you (6) got a beautiful voice. Please, sing to me. I want to hear your beautiful voice.“

The crow wants to sing. She (7) her beak and says: „Caw! Caw!“ But the fox isn't listening (8) her. When she opens the beak, the cheese falls down. It lands in front of the fox. „Thank you,“ says the fox and picks up the piece of cheese and eats it.
